

I am very much against broadening the regulations to allow one company to own numerous TV stations and other media such as newspapers in the same community, or to allow a TV owner to also own a newspaper. Clear Channel is a disaster for radio, and we will have the same problem with TV and newspapers if the regulations are relaxed. Diversity and small businesses are essential to our way of life and our democracy.